

answer and all about it.

yours truly
Harry Pearson
Rear 16-D-Street
Providence,
R. I.,

April 1-1906
Prov. R. I.

Dear Sir..

I was talking with Fred. R. Sherman about a position on your team, as I have not signed with any Club yet.

He told me about the suits and about the team going for practice at Palace Gardens
I am unable to report - for practice on April 1st on April 8th you can find me with at Rocky Point Grounds on the Diamond with Providence Players I am well — acquainted with all the players as I was with them at Melrose Park

all last Summer.

I am colored 21 years old. Height 5 ft.
5 inches. Weight 151 $\frac{1}{4}$ pounds.

These are the Clubs I played with.
1903-4 Season the Warwick R.I. Base Base Club 1904- Season the Crack
Colored Cuban Giants
of Brooklyn New York
Captain P. P. Watkins
94 Rockwell Place
Brooklyn New York

1905-Season Providence - Colored Giants in April 2.
1906 Telegram or Tribune
in you will find the picture of the Providence Giants

I am booked to play
First Base for the Boston Colored Giants but I guess I will stay home
this season.

If there is any - doubt of anything in this letter you can - inquire.

I play any position but catcher. I would like you to write me a definite

Letter written by Harry Fearson, dated April 1, 1906
Courtesy of Robert Cvornyek, author's collection Transcription

April 1 -1906
Prov. R.I.

Dear Sir,

I was talking with Fred. R. Sherman about a position on your team, as I have not signed with any Club yet.

He told me about the Suits and about the team going for practice at Palace Gardens. I am unable to report for practice on April 1st – on April 8th you can find me with at Rocky Point Grounds on the Diamond with Providence Players. I am well acquainted with all the players as I was with them at Melrose Park all last summer.

I am colored 21 years old. Height 5 ft 5 inches. Weight 151 ¼ pounds

These are the Clubs I played with.

1903-4 Season the Warwick R.I. Base Base Club

1904 Season the Crack Colored Cuban Giants of Brooklyn New York
Captain Pop Watkins 94 Rockwell Place
Brooklyn New York

1905 Season Providence Colored Giants in April 2 1906 Telegram or Tribune in you will find the picture of the Providence Giants

I am booked to play First Base for the Boston Colored Giants but I guess I will stay home this season.

If there is any doubt of anything in this letter you can inquire.

I play any position but catcher.

I would like you to write me a definite answer and all about it.

Yours Truly,

Harry Fearson
Rear 16 – D – Street
Providence, R.I.